2021 MEDIA GUIDE

CHAMPIONS

CLIMB HERE

Following the 2020-21 season, WKU has won 32 conference titles in nine different sports since joining Conference USA in 2014. That's eight more total championships than the next closest school. Only four of C-USA's 14 schools have more than 11 championships since 2014.

Despite representing just 7% of the league's membership (1 of 14), WKU has won nearly 17% of all championships awarded since 2014, meaning one of every six trophies up for grabs has come home to The Hill.

In addition to leading the league in championships, WKU has also displayed consistency. In seven years in the conference, WKU has won multiple championships every year but one and has taken home at least five titles four times. The other 13 league members have won at least five championships in a single year a combined four times over that span.

Despite the many obstacles of the pandemic, WKU won five championships in four different sports in 2020-21, including the first C-USA crowns for men's basketball and women's soccer. Softball also won the C-USA Tournament on its home field, and volleyball continued its dominance with its 11th and 12th championships in 14 opportunities in the league.

That excellence has also translated to the classroom. WKU's 3.19 cumulative GPA for all student-athletes this spring was the highest in the athletics department's history, and 13 of WKU's 14 athletic programs had a GPA of 3.0 or higher.

WKU has maintained its level of success with a budget ranked 13th of 14 teams in C-USA. Since 2014, WKU is the only FBS school to lead its conference in championships while ranking in the bottom 25% of its league in budget.

DIRECTIONS TO WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

From I-65 North (heading south): Take the first Bowling Green exit (exit 28) onto US 31-W. Follow the signs for US 31-W South -- Bowling Green. Stay on the four-lane US 31-W South (Louisville Road) to the stop light at the bridge over Barren River. Continue straight through the light. When the one-way streets merge into the four-lane University Blvd., you will be on the NW corner of the Western Kentucky University campus (railroad on right, WKU on left).

From I-65 South (heading north): Take the second Bowling Green exit (exit 22) onto Scottsville Road and follow it all the way down to the 31-W intersection. Take a left at the light and follow 31-W down to the roundabout and exit right onto University Blvd. WKU's athletic facilities will be located on your right coming up the road.

From US 68-80 West (heading east): Follow US 68-80 (Russellville Road) into Bowling Green. You will pass under a railroad overpass (with its "Welcome to Western" sign) and turn left onto University Blvd. The athletics complex will then be on your right -- first Nick Denes Field (baseball), then Houchens Industries-L.T. Smith Stadium. The Arena/Stadium Parking Lot and E.A. Diddle Arena will be on your right just past the Stadium.

From the Natcher Parkway (heading south): Take the first Bowling Green exit (US 231, exit 9) and turn right onto Morgantown Road (US 231) into Bowling Green. You will cross Veterans Memorial Lane and pass Warren Central High School (on the right). When you reach the junction of US 231 and US 68-80 (Holley Corporation on your right and Arby's straight ahead), turn left onto Russellville Road and follow the directions for US 68-80 above from the railroad overpass ("Welcome to WKU" sign) on in to Diddle Arena/Smith Stadium.

E.A. DIDDLE ARENA

One of the finest on-campus facilities in the country, WKU's E.A. Diddle Arena serves as the competition home of WKU Hilltopper Basketball, WKU Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Hilltopper Volleyball.

The building, named for legendary Hilltopper coach E.A. Diddle, was officially dedicated in December 1963 and underwent a $32 million renovation in 2002. The facility celebrated its 50th year of operation during the 2012-13 school year.

Diddle Arena received significant upgrades heading into the 2018-19 season, including two new state-of-the-art, high-definition videoboards that drastically increase the size and clarity of the viewing area.

Updates also included a complete renovation of the sound system inside Diddle Arena to further enhance the in-game fan experience and a redesign of the playing court.

The project is funded through a strategic fundraising campaign led by the Hilltopper Athletic Foundation.

The capacity was also officially raised to 7,523 to account for new lounge seating on the upper concourse and additional courtside seating.

Included in the 2002-03 Diddle Arena renovation were a new playing floor, all-new seating, two video boards and 16 luxury suites. But those were just the changes made to the playing arena. An addition was added to the back side of the facility which houses training and weight rooms, as well as a 30,000-square foot auxiliary gym complex containing two regulation basketball courts with a firewall divider.

New locker rooms and office facilities were also added for multiple sports and the athletics administration.

The utility and versatility of the arena has been amply demonstrated throughout the years. It has been the site of NCAA Regional Tournaments in both men's and women's basketball, the Kentucky High School Athletic Association's Girls Sweet 16 basketball tournament and an NBA exhibition game.

The facility has also hosted several Sun Belt Conference basketball tournaments and was the site of the 2003, 2009 and 2012 SBC Volleyball Championship, the 2017 Conference USA Volleyball Championship and the 2019 NCAA Volleyball Tournament First and Second Rounds. Diddle Arena has staged numerous concerts, hosted WKU's annual spring and winter commencements and has even welcomed the President of the United States during a 1988 visit by Ronald Reagan.

In addition to being one of the homes for WKU Athletics, Diddle Arena also contains classrooms and activity areas for the Department of Physical Education and Recreation as well as the WKU Army ROTC program.

E.A. DIDDLE

WKU's Edgar Allen Diddle stood unique among the college basketball coaches of the world.

His 759-302 won-loss record over 42 years at WKU made him the first coach to ever guide his team through more than 1,000 games at one college. At the time of his retirement in 1964, his 759 wins stood as the highest total ever by a college coach.

On September 7, 1922, he joined the staff at Western Kentucky State College as athletic director and coach of all sports. He gave up his duties as head football coach in the fall of 1929. In 1934, Diddle relinquished the job of athletic director, but assumed it again in the summer of 1942 and held it, in addition to his coaching duties, until his retirement.

Over the years he became famous throughout the nation for his antics with a red towel that was his constant companion on the bench. Never done as a "show," the towel tossing started as a nervous habit, and he used it to signal his players. The Red Towel soon became a revered WKU tradition.

2021 OUTLOOK

Fresh off of the best season in program history, WKU Volleyball returns every player from its historic Sweet 16 campaign this past spring.

This fall, WKU expects to welcome full capacity crowds back to Diddle Arena to cheer on the Hilltoppers. The first visitors to The Hill are none other than the defending national champion Wildcats as Kentucky will come to town for a free exhibition. In total, the Red and White will host 13 regular season matches while taking on a 26-game schedule. WKU is set to face four Power Five squads and three NCAA Tournament teams from the spring.

Through WKU's first nine matches, the squad will face three NCAA Tournament teams (Notre Dame, Lipscomb and Samford) from last season and four Power Five programs.

Entering the 2020-21 season, Hudson and the Tops were one of just five programs in the nation to produce 20 or more consecutive 20-win seasons; and they'll be one of just two programs to own a streak of 21 consecutive 20-win seasons entering 2021. Only WKU and Florida (30) would keep their streaks alive as Nebraska (45), Penn State (43) and Colorado State (25) all failed to reach 20 wins during the spring.

In addition to all 14 returning players, the Hilltoppers will also welcome four freshmen to campus as well. Ready to make an impact, Callie Bauer, Kelsey Brangers, Kenadee Coyle and Katie Howard are expected to make their debuts this fall. On the flip side, Nadia Dieudonne, Kayland Jackson, Logan Kael and Hallie Shelton will utilize their fifth seasons of eligibility as granted by the NCAA due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

AVCA TOP-25 COACHES POLL

WKU Volleyball has earned the highest AVCA Preseason Coaches Poll ranking in program history, coming in at No. 16 in Monday's rankings. The Hilltoppers have now ranked in the top 25 in 10 of the last 11 seasons and received votes for 12 consecutive campaigns.

WKU will open a season ranked for just the fourth time in program history during the 2021 fall campaign, also marking the first time the team will do so in back-to-back campaigns. The Hilltoppers came in at No. 25 to begin the 2020-21 spring season. In 2013, WKU was ranked in the AVCA Preseason poll for the first time, coming in at No. 21 before owning the 22nd slot prior to the 2016 season.

SINCE JOINING CONFERENCE USA

Across the last seven seasons on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 198-30 record that included 12 collective Conference USA Championships. The Hilltoppers went 94-6 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In six NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 5-6 record.

MORE ACCESSIBLE THAN EVER

All 13 regular season home matches for WKU Volleyball will be streamed on Facebook Live this season while every match – home and away – will feature a live radio broadcast for the first time as well. Additionally, a weekly Travis Hudson Coach's Show at Roosters has been added for this season.

The Facebook Live stream for home matches will be a simulcast with the radio broadcast and feature Brett Williams and Ken Marshall. Williams will also be on the radio call for all WKU Volleyball matches away from Diddle Arena.

WKU's historic NCAA Tournament run this spring featured the first radio broadcasts in program history. With the success of those calls, Hilltopper Sports Properties and Learfield have decided to make every WKU Volleyball match available on the radio for the 2021 season.

Matches will be broadcast on ESPN Radio 102.7 FM and on ESPNRadio1027.com for those outside of the listening area. Pregame coverage will begin 30 minutes before first serve with the post-game show lasting approximately 30 minutes as well. Both shows will feature an interview with Coach Hudson and select shows will feature student-athlete interviews.

Hudson's weekly radio show at Roosters will take place on Monday nights from 6-7 p.m. CT before WKU Football coach Tyson Helton follows at 7 p.m.

ALL-TIME VS. RANKED TEAMS

WKU is now 10-19 all-time when facing a top-25 squad including a 9-11 mark since the beginning of the 2012 campaign following its NCAA Tournament Second Round win over No. 17 Washington State.

The Hilltoppers will have the opportunity to add to that record during the 2021 campaign as No. 25 Notre Dame hosts WKU's first tournament of the fall.

C-USA NAMES ALYSSA CAVANAUGH POTY AWARD

In June 2021, Conference USA officially renamed its top volleyball superlative award as the Alyssa Cavanaugh Player of the Year award in honor of the late WKU four-time All-American who passed away in December 2020.

Cavanaugh was a two-time C-USA Volleyball Player of the Year in addition to earning the Michael L. Slive Female Athlete of the Year honor as a senior.

HEAD COACH

TRAVIS HUDSON

One name easily comes to mind when thinking of Western Kentucky University volleyball –Travis Hudson. Entering his 27th season as head coach in the 2021 school year, he is the architect behind turning WKU Volleyball into a championship-caliber team and bringing national attention to the Hilltopper program.

After taking over the helm in 1995 and finishing that campaign with a 7-26 overall record, a resurgence in WKU Volleyball came at an astounding pace. Under Hudson's tutelage, WKU has earned 10 Sun Belt Conference Regular-Season Championships, including seven-straight from 2000-2006, and five Sun Belt Conference Tournament Championships. In the department's first four seasons in Conference USA, Hudson guided the 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017 squads to four-straight regular season titles and sequential C-USA Championships before adding a fifth set of league trophies in 2019 and sixth pair in spring 2021. Along with that, the Tops have appeared in 13 NCAA Tournaments, as 11 came from earning the league's automatic bid and two were as at-large selections.

For his career, Hudson holds a 665-216 (.755) mark, as his only head coaching job has been on The Hill. Hudson has been named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year five times (2000, 2002, 2005, 2012 and 2013) and Conference USA Coach of the Year three times (2015, 2016 and 2019) while being an American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) National Coach of the Year finalist seven times after earning the South Region Coach of the Year award in 2002, 2005, 2012, 2016, 2017, 2019 and 2020-21. He has 24 winning seasons in his career, as he has 22 seasons with 20 or more wins as well as nine campaigns with 30 or more wins.

One of Hudson's most recent honors came for the difference he's made off the court. The 1994 WKU graduate was introduced as a member of the 29th induction class to Western Kentucky University's Hall of Distinguished Alumni on Friday, October 9, 2020.

Season 26 on The Hill saw Hudson navigate the Tops to their best season yet despite an on-going global pandemic. Going 23-1 overall, WKU's lone loss on the season came to the eventual national champions in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Red and White earned the No. 16 rank in the final AVCA poll, which tied the team's best-ever ranking. Lauren Matthews (2nd Team) joined Alyssa Cavanaugh (3rd Team) as the only players in WKU Volleyball history to be recognized on one of the AVCA's three All-American lists. Nadia Dieudonne earned Senior CLASS Award All-American status as well.

In his 25th season at the helm of the program, Hudson led the Hilltoppers to a 32-2 overall record which included a perfect 14-0 mark in Conference USA, the league's regular season and tournament titles, and the team's first-ever NCAA Tournament national seed at No. 15. Hudson and the Tops are one of just five programs in the nation to produce 20 or more consecutive 20-win seasons.

Hilltopper Nation showed up by the masses to support the Hilltoppers inside Diddle Arena with record-setting crowds on back-to-back nights for the NCAA Tournament. Thursday night, 4,514 were in attendance to watch the Tops win their fourth-ever NCAA Tournament match. One night later, 5,023 people came through the arena doors to watch the rematch between WKU and Louisville. While the Tops bowed out of the tournament, a statement was made that Diddle Arena was near the top of the list of volleyball atmospheres across the country. The two-day attendance of 9,537 ranked fourth of the 16 host sites behind only the three national attendance leaders across the NCAA Volleyball season, Nebraska, Hawai'i and Wisconsin. Friday night's attendance alone topped the two-day total of eight of the other sites.

Hudson (Coach of the Year), Paige Briggs (Freshman of the Year) and Lauren Matthews (Player of the Year) each earned both the AVCA Region superlatives and Conference USA superlatives. Matthews also added AVCA Honorable Mention All-American honors and C-USA Tournament MVP status. Nadia Dieudonne collected C-USA Setter of the Year honors and AVCA All-Region recognition in her first year on The Hill.

After graduating five seniors - including two four-time All-Americans - Hudson was faced with a tall task during the 2018 campaign. The squad returned just two upperclassmen front row players and only one that had seen significant court time. Despite an uphill battle to conquer, Coach Hudson led the squad to its 19th-straight 20-win season and secured the No. 2 seed in the C-USA Tournament for the second-consecutive season finishing with a 20-10 record. Individually, Rachel Anderson earned All-American honors for the third time of her career and was named a Senior CLASS Award candidate. Additionally, the senior collected Conference USA's coveted Jim Castañeda Postgraduate Scholarship.

On Oct. 21, 2018, Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat. Hudson is the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

In his first four seasons with Conference USA, Hudson and the Hilltoppers set the standard high, as 18 Hilltoppers garnered All-Conference awards while Alyssa Cavanaugh (2014) and Rachel Anderson (2015) were both named the league's Freshman of the Year. Jessica Lucas was honored as the league's Setter of the Year in her final three seasons, 2015, 2016 and 2017 while Cavanaugh repeated as the league's Player of the Year. Upon the conclusion of the 2017-18 academic year, Cavanaugh earned Conference USA's Female Athlete of the Year honor.

With an experienced core, the 2017 WKU Volleyball squad continued finding new records to break. On Oct. 6, 2017, Hudson led the unit to its 30th-straight win over a C-USA opponent for the league record. That streak would stretch to 38 matches before a setback at North Texas. Speaking of streaks, the Hilltoppers continued their unprecedented home conference winning streak, stretching it to 55-consecutive wins dating back to the 2011 season.

WKU hit the ground running come postseason time in 2017, getting to play all five postseason matches in the Bluegrass State. Hosting the C-USA Tournament for the first time, the Red and White put on a show for the Diddle Arena crowd, as the squad clinched its fourth-straight trip to The Dance. The Hilltoppers would end up heading to Lexington, Ky., for the NCAA Tournament and sweep defensive-power Notre Dame. The next night, the Hilltoppers took a 2-0 lead on host and No. 6 Kentucky before the Wildcats fought back and ultimately claimed the five-set match.

For the seventh-consecutive season, the Hilltoppers found themselves ranked in the AVCA Coaches Poll, spending two weeks ranked and the remainder of the season receiving votes.

Jessica Lucas and Alyssa Cavanaugh were both named Senior CLASS Award candidates and when the field narrowed to 10, Lucas was named a Senior CLASS finalist. The senior ultimately won the fan vote and earned First Team All-American status from the prestigious organization.

On the court in 2016, WKU strung together one of the nation's longest winning streaks at 21-straight matches en route to its third-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. WKU finished the year with a 30-3 record in addition to two more league titles. Hudson was tabbed both the C-USA Coach of the Year as well as the AVCA South Region Coach of the Year.

The 2016 WKU squad proved to be one of the elite teams in the nation both on and off the court. After posting a cumulative team GPA of 3.61 for the 2016-17 school year to earn a spot on the AVCA Academic Honor Roll, WKU became the only Division I program to earn top-25 academic honors and finish in the top-25 (or receive votes) in the final AVCA Coaches Poll of the 2016 campaign.

In 2015 the Hilltoppers finished the season with a 32-4 overall record, including a statement victory at then fifth-ranked Wisconsin to open the season. The win marked the fifth time in four seasons that WKU knocked off a top-25 opponent. Hudson would go on to notch his 500th career victory a day later with a sweep of Colgate. After leading WKU to its first outright Conference USA regular season title with a 15-1 league record, Hudson earned his first C-USA Coach of the Year honor.

Hudson and WKU finished the season on a high note as the Hilltoppers found postseason success after advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for just the second time in program history with a sweep of Arizona. The Hilltoppers earned the league's automatic berth in the tournament after capturing the 2015 Conference USA Tournament title with a four-set victory over host UTSA in San Antonio, Texas.

WKU ended the year by garnering a national ranking for just the second time in program history after finishing with a No. 22 overall ranking in the AVCA Coaches poll. Three Hilltoppers, Noelle Langenkamp, Jessica Lucas and Alyssa Cavanaugh earned AVCA All-Region honors while Lucas and Cavanaugh repeated as Honorable Mention AVCA All-Americans.

For the team's first season in Conference USA, the 2014 squad took home a co-championship for its 15-1 league record while winning the C-USA Championship, finishing the season 30-6 overall after making its eighth NCAA appearance in program history. Highlighting the year was a win at home over No. 8 Purdue, recording a victory over the highest-ranked opponent in the school's volleyball tenure. For the second-straight year, WKU defeated a nationally-ranked Boilermaker team in five sets.

Looking to take the league's automatic bid to the NCAA postseason, WKU swept Florida Atlantic and North Texas before defeating Rice in a gritty five-set thriller in the Championship Match. Appearing in the program's eighth NCAA Tournament and seventh in the last 10 seasons, WKU went to Champaign, Ill., and took on Iowa State, falling 3-0 to the Big 12 team to conclude the season.

Four Hilltoppers earned All-Conference honors, including Heather Boyan, Alyssa Cavanaugh, Jessica Lucas and Noelle Langenkamp. Cavanaugh was named the C-USA Freshman of the Year while the Louisville native along with Lucas went on to earn AVCA All-American and All-Region accolades. Additionally, Boyan and Rachel Engle were recognized for their performances in the classroom, being named to the 11-person C-USA All-Academic Team.

Hudson closed out WKU's time in the Sun Belt Conference with a 215-59 record (.785), as the athletic department joined Conference USA as a full-time member in July 2014. His student-athletes earned 59 All-Sun Belt Conference selections, including 35 first-team honorees, as well as five selections for SBC Player of the Year, six for SBC Defensive Player of the Year, one for SBC Setter of the Year and four for SBC Freshman/Newcomer of the Year.

During the 2013 season, WKU was looking to end its era in the Sun Belt Conference on top, and it did that by winning Hudson's 10th regular-season title and 11th in program history with a 27-6 overall record and 17-1 against league opponents. The Hilltoppers opened the season for the first-time ever ranked in the AVCA Top-25 poll at No. 21 before moving up to No. 16 after defeating No. 16 Purdue in West Lafayette in its opening weekend. The ranking was the highest in school history. The team stayed ranked or received votes for 15-consecutive weeks throughout 2013.

After a tough non-conference slate that consisted of five opponents receiving national attention from the poll voters, WKU carried a 10-4 record into SBC action. WKU swept its first five matches before dropping its first set against a league foe in a 3-1 win over ULM. It snapped a streak of 40-consecutive sets won over a SBC opponent and 24-straight sets won by WKU this season overall. The Hilltoppers then took its first and only loss in the conference schedule the following match in a five-set contest at Louisiana-Lafayette, breaking an impressive SBC streak set by the team, as it was the first loss against a league opponent since October 4, 2011, making it 38-straight matches won.

The team responded after the loss by winning out the regular season and sweeping 10 of its last 11 matches. In the process, Melanie Stutsman became WKU's all-time assist leader while Ashley Potts became the program's all-time digs leader. WKU ended the season in its 29th SBC Tournament appearance and 16th under Hudson.

The Hilltoppers are also recognized on a national scale, as WKU ranked as high as No. 16 in the AVCA National Poll in 2013, 2020 & 2021 and finished as No. 21 in the nation in 2012, the first time in program history that a team finished the season ranked. Along with that, Hudson's produced 35 AVCA All-Region selections and 2=3 AVCA All-Americans during his tenure, including four-time All-Americans Megan Argabright, Alyssa Cavanaugh and Jessica Lucas.

At season's end, SBC coaches placed five Hilltoppers on All-Conference teams and honoring three individuals with specialty awards. Stutsman earned the league's inaugural Setter of the Year honor while Potts won Defensive Player of the Year for the third time. Stutsman, Paige Wessel and Noelle Langenkamp earned first-team accolades while Potts and Heather Boyan were named to the second team. Hudson also earned Coach of the Year while all the Hilltoppers were given the Team Academic Award after earning the highest GPA out of the league's 10 schools.

2012 saw WKU defend the team's league titles by earning their second-straight SBC regular-season and tournament championships. WKU entered the AVCA top 25 in week five's poll at No. 24 with a 13-3 record and wins over nationally-ranked opponents Dayton and Michigan. WKU finished out the year ranked in the national poll and finished with a No. 21 ranking, the first time in program history that a WKU squad ranked in the year's final release.

After falling to Ohio State on Sept. 8, WKU would not drop a match until its final contest of the 2012 season, giving WKU and Hudson the longest-winning streak in school history at 24 matches. During that time, the Hilltoppers also won 36-straight sets, including 11-consecutive sweeps. Heading into the SBC Tournament at E.A. Diddle Arena, WKU took 45 of 46 sets against SBC teams and ranked as high as No. 17 in the AVCA poll, then a program record. The Hilltoppers then won three-straight sweeps on its way to the tournament crown.

WKU made history again in its seventh appearance at the NCAA Tournament, as the Hilltoppers took a 3-0 victory against Loyola Marymount in their opening match, the first-ever NCAA Tournament win in the program's history. The team's memorable season came to a conclusion after falling to host and No. 2 Stanford, giving WKU a 33-4 season record.

Six Hilltoppers were recognized for their efforts on the court along with Hudson. Stutsman and Jordyn Skinner were named AVCA All-American and All-South honorees. Potts was named the league's Defensive Player of the Year for the second year in a row while she, Stutsman, Skinner and Wessel were First-Team All-SBC selections. Boyan and Langenkamp were named to the second team. Hudson earned his third AVCA South Region Coach of the Year honor after being named SBC Coach of the Year for the fourth time in his career.

In 2011, Hudson past UALR's Van Compton to lead all active Sun Belt Conference coaches in league wins with 183. Hudson also won the 400th match of his career with a 3-0 sweep of Denver at E.A. Diddle Arena on Oct. 28. The Hilltoppers finished the season 31-4 after losing to Marquette in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The 2011 season also saw WKU Volleyball achieve new levels of recognition on the national circuit. For the first time in program history, WKU entered the AVCA Top 25 Poll, ranked No. 24 in the nation heading into the postseason. The Hilltoppers also reached a program high No. 21 in the NCAA RPI.

Skinner was named the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year while Potts was tabbed as the SBC Defensive Player of the Year. Tiffany Elmore, Stutsman and Lindsay Williams joined the pair as All-SBC honorees. Skinner and Stutsman were also named first-team All-South Region.

The 2010 season saw the Hilltoppers earn a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Following the regular season, Elmore, Williams, Skinner and Stutsman were named to the All-Sun Belt Conference teams. Stutsman was also named SBC Freshman of the Year.

Stutsman and Elmore added to their honors as they were both named to the AVCA All-South Region Team. Stutsman was named the South Region Freshman of the Year, along with earning a spot on the 14-person first team. She went on to become the fourth Hilltopper to earn All-American honors, being named an AVCA honorable mention All-American.

In 2008, the Hilltoppers claimed the program's third Sun Belt Conference Tournament title sweeping all three opponents, Middle Tennessee, FIU and New Orleans, on their way to the league's NCAA Tournament at-large bid. After winning the championship, the Hilltoppers competed in the school's fourth NCAA Tournament in Champaign, Ill.

Following the season, seniors Megan Argabright and Julia Noe were named to the AVCA All-South Region Teams and also picked up All-American honors for their performances during the season.

Through the first 26 years of the NCAA Volleyball Tournament, the Sun Belt Conference had never received an at-large bid. That changed in 2007, however, as a top-notch schedule, a No.

36 ranking in the RPI, and a 27-9 final record all added up to an invitation to the "Big Dance" for the Hilltoppers. It marked the third NCAA Tournament appearance for WKU in six seasons, with the Hilltoppers earning the Sun Belt's automatic bid with league tournament championships in both 2002 and 2005.

The 2005 Hilltoppers rank among the best teams in school history, finishing the year 31-3 (a school-record .912 winning percentage) and going undefeated in Sun Belt Conference play (12-0). WKU also ran through the conference tournament, claiming its second championship and berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Hilltoppers had the best start in school history opening the season 18-1 – including wins at Indiana and Georgia Tech. They went on to win 27 of their last 28 matches en route to the Sun Belt championship, as Hudson earned SBC Coach of the Year honors for the third time since 2000. WKU also gained national recognition, climbing to 34th in the USA Today/CSTV Coaches Poll.

The 2005 season also produced another first in Hilltopper volleyball history, as Caron Blotch and Argabright were named to the AVCA All-America team. Hudson also earned his second AVCA South Region Coach of the Year Award.

Argabright went on to become the first multi-time All-American in Hilltopper history, as Hudson led her and the 2006 squad to a seventh-straight division title with a 14-3 league mark and a 26-10 overall record. She also earned All-America honors following the 2007 season.

Hudson's 2004 squad opened the campaign 16-1 with the only loss coming in a four-set setback to nationally-ranked Stanford. WKU went on to capture its fifth-straight Sun Belt Conference East Division Championship with an 11-3 league mark, and advanced to the Sun Belt Tournament championship match for the fourth-consecutive season. The Hilltoppers also posted their seventh-consecutive winning campaign, finishing 26-7, and became the first Hilltopper team to earn votes in the coaches poll, climbing as high as 32nd with nine votes.

The 2003 team continued the championship trend, capturing another division championship with a 12-2 mark, and again advancing to the Sun Belt Tournament championship match in E.A. Diddle Arena. The program also reached a milestone as it finished in the top 50 in the final RPI for the first time.

In 2002, Hudson became WKU's all-time winningest coach by knocking off New Mexico State in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament title match, capping off a then school-record 19-straight wins to give the program its first-ever SBC championship and NCAA Tournament berth. Despite the graduation of three of the best players to suit up in Hilltopper history, the 2003 squad set school records for wins in a season with 33 en route to their third-straight SBC East Division title, all after being picked to finish third in their division by the league's coaches in the preseason poll.

Hudson was named the AVCA South Region Coach of the Year in addition to earning the SBC's top honor for the second time in three years.

WKU followed the 2000 performance with an equally impressive 2001 campaign, finishing 24-6 and 13-1 in the Sun Belt Conference, winning the East Division championship outright. The Hilltoppers finished fifth in the final South Region poll, but more impressively were ranked fourth in the year's first poll – the highest ranking in school history.

Beginning in 2000, the players who have suited up for WKU have transformed the Hilltoppers into the front runner in the Sun Belt Conference. The 2000 season set an early standard for success, which Hudson's squad has improved upon year-by-year. That year's team rolled to a 25-8 record, a No. 10 ranking in the final South Region poll, a No. 84 RPI rating and a share of the SBC East Division championship, WKU's first league title in nine years (and the second in school history). For his efforts, Hudson was named the 2000 Sun Belt Coach of the Year, becoming just the second WKU skipper to be so honored.

The program's resurgence actually began with a remarkable 26-10 record in 1998, the nation's best one-season improvement (+17 wins) and a trip to the SBC Tournament championship match -- WKU's first appearance in the title contest in seven seasons. Following a return trip to the tournament semifinals in 1999, the Hilltoppers began their remarkable run in 2000.

In addition to his on-court successes, Hudson is fiercely proud of the achievements his players have produced in the classroom. He is a firm believer in living up to the term "student-athlete," and one can hardly argue with the results. The Hilltoppers boast a 100-percent graduation rate in Hudson's tenure, with nine of his players earning academic all-district honors. In addition, Natalie Furry became the first WKU (and Sun Belt Conference) volleyball player to earn Verizon Academic-All America recognition, winning a spot on the third team in 2000.

For the 15th-consecutive season, WKU Volleyball has been recognized as a recipient of the AVCA Team Academic Award for its work in the classroom throughout the 2020-21 school year. With a cumulative GPA of 3.619, the Hilltoppers have earned the Team Academic Award for the 19th time since 1999. WKU logged the second-best GPA in the nation (3.606) in 2000, and an equally impressive mark (3.56) in 2001.

The team was honored by the NCAA for having a multiyear Academic Progress Rate (APR) score in the top 10 percent nationally through the 2018-19 academic year, which marks the 14th-straight year the Hilltoppers ranked in the top 10 percent nationally.

Two organizations the team shows great interest in is Hope for Harlie and the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. FOJ would forever change the lives of people involved with WKU Volleyball, as the group connected the team with Harlie Bryant in 2012. Hailing from Beaver Dam, Ky., Bryant was diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes at a young age. Once FOJ connected Bryant with the volleyball team, Bryant was adopted as an official member of the squad, donning the No. 6 jersey ever since.

Prior to assuming the head coaching duties for the Hilltoppers in 1995, he served as an assistant coach for two years with Mark Hardaway, who left The Hill to take the head coaching position at Evansville, and one campaign under Jeff Hulsmeyer, former head coach at Purdue. Hudson also served as WKU's interim head coach on two occasions, once after Hulsmeyer left for Arkansas State in 1991 and again in the spring of 1995 following the departure of Hardaway. Later that year, Hudson became the head coach at WKU, making him (at the time) the youngest head coach in the nation at age 24.

A featured clinician, Hudson has developed a reputation as one of the best coaches in the game. He has directed and staffed various volleyball camps both at the collegiate and high school levels throughout the region, including the WKU Volleyball Camp that he founded in the summer of 2000. He has also spent time as a member of the polling committee for AVCA Top 25 rankings.

In the summer of 2017, Hudson received a call from USA Volleyball, inviting the veteran head coach to the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs to help guide the USA Women's Junior National Training Team (WJNTT). Hudson accepted and worked with the squad gearing up for the 2017 FIVB Volleyball Women's U20 World Championship.

Following the 2018-19 school year, Hudson worked with USA Volleyball for the second time. For a week in late June, Hudson traveled to Anaheim, Calif., to help coach the U.S. Women's Collegiate National Team.

Hudson is the cousin of former Hilltopper basketball great Bob Daniels, who lettered for WKU from 1954-57. A graduate of nearby Edmonson County High School in Brownsville, Ky., Hudson captained both the varsity football and basketball teams, earning All-State honors in football. A 1994 graduate of WKU, Hudson holds a bachelor's degree in business management with a marketing emphasis. In 1996, he married the former Cindy Wiseman, a graduate of the University of Louisville's School of Allied Health with a degree in physical therapy. The couple has two sons, Tyler and Andrew.

ASSISTANT COACH

SEVENTH YEAR AT WKU | MOREHEAD STATE '95

With more than 20 years of Division I assistant coaching experience, Craig Bere brought his extensive volleyball knowledge to The Hill prior to the 2015 season and the Hilltoppers haven't taken their foot off the gas pedal since. Bere is set for his seventh season on the sidelines for WKU volleyball in the 2021 school year. Following his fifth season at WKU, Bere was promoted to the program's first assistant coach.

Despite an on-going global pandemic, WKU Volleyball achieved its best season yet in 2020-21. Going 23-1 overall, WKU's lone loss on the season came to the eventual national champions in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Red and White earned the No. 16 rank in the final AVCA poll, which tied the team's best-ever ranking. Lauren Matthews (2nd Team) joined Alyssa Cavanaugh (3rd Team) as the only players in WKU Volleyball history to be recognized on one of the AVCA's three All-American lists. Nadia Dieudonne earned Senior CLASS Award All-American status as well.

During the 2019 campaign, the Hilltoppers posted a 32-2 overall record which included a perfect 14-0 mark in Conference USA, the league's regular season and tournament titles, and the team's first-ever NCAA Tournament national seed at No. 15. The Tops became one of just five programs in the nation to produce 20 or more consecutive 20-win seasons.

Hilltopper Nation showed up by the masses to support the Hilltoppers inside Diddle Arena with record-setting crowds on back-to-back nights for the NCAA Tournament. Thursday night, 4,514 were in attendance to watch the Tops win their fourth-ever NCAA Tournament match. One night later, 5,023 people came through the arena doors to watch the rematch between WKU and Louisville. While the Tops bowed out of the tournament, a statement was made that Diddle Arena was near the top of the list of volleyball atmospheres across the country. The two-day attendance of 9,537 ranked fourth of the 16 host sites behind only the three national attendance leaders across the NCAA Volleyball season, Nebraska, Hawai'i and Wisconsin. Friday night's attendance alone topped the two-day total of eight of the other sites.

Bere helped guide Paige Briggs (Freshman of the Year) and Lauren Matthews (Player of the Year) to earn AVCA Region superlatives and Conference USA superlatives. Matthews also added AVCA Honorable Mention All-American honors and C-USA Tournament MVP status. Nadia Dieudonne collected C-USA Setter of the Year honors and AVCA All-Region recognition in her first year on The Hill.

After graduating five seniors - including two four-time All-Americans - the WKU staff was faced with a tall task during the 2018 campaign. The squad returned just two upperclassmen front row players and only one that had seen significant court time. Despite an uphill battle to conquer, the WKU staff led the squad to its 19th-straight 20-win season and secured the No. 2 seed in the C-USA Tournament for the second-consecutive season finishing with a 20-10 record. Individually, Rachel Anderson earned All-American honors for the third time of her career and was named a Senior CLASS Award candidate. Additionally, the senior collected Conference USA's coveted Jim Castañeda Postgraduate Scholarship.

Returning an experienced core, the 2017 WKU Volleyball squad continued finding new records to break. On Oct. 6, 2017, Bere helped lead the unit to its 30th-straight win over a C-USA opponent for the league record. That streak would stretch to 38 matches before a setback at North Texas. After tying the Mean Green for the C-USA Regular Season Championship, WKU hit the ground running come postseason time, getting to play all five postseason matches in the Bluegrass State.

Hosting the C-USA Tournament for the first time, the Red and White put on a show for the Diddle Arena crowd, as the squad clinched its fourth-straight trip to The Dance. The Hilltoppers would end up heading to Lexington, Ky., for the NCAA Tournament and sweep defensive-power Notre Dame to advance to the second round for the second time in Bere's three seasons on staff. The next night, the Hilltoppers took a 2-0 lead on host and No. 6 Kentucky before the Wildcats fought back and ultimately claimed the five-set match.

Year two on The Hill with Bere on staff saw the Hilltoppers repeat as outright C-USA regular season champions after sharing the crown in 2014. Additionally, the Red and White won their third-straight C-USA Tournament championship to secure the program's 10th NCAA Tournament appearance. WKU sported a clean 14-0 mark in regular-season league play and posted an overall 21-match win streak. After posting a cumulative team GPA of 3.61 for the 2016-17 school year to earn a spot on the AVCA Academic Honor Roll, WKU was the only DI program to earn top-25 academic honors and finish in the top-25 (or receive votes) in the final AVCA Coaches Poll of 2016.

In his first year on The Hill, Bere helped WKU to a 32-4 overall record in 2015 as the Hilltoppers earned their first outright regular season title after putting together a 15-1 league record.

After securing its second Conference USA Championship title, WKU made its ninth NCAA appearance in program history. A statement victory came in the first match of the year as the Hilltoppers defeated No. 5 Wisconsin.

After spending the 2014 season in South Bend, Ind., Bere helped the Irish through its second year of Atlantic Coast Conference action. Notre Dame faced a tough league schedule, as the Irish collected wins against Louisville, Syracuse and Boston College. Bere helped Notre Dame newcomer Sam Fry to a spot on the All-ACC Freshman Team after the Ohio native led the team in each blocking category while second in aces and hitting percentage.

Prior to Notre Dame, Bere spent time at Georgia Tech (2008-13), where he instantly made an impact with the Yellow Jackets in 2009 by helping them qualify for their first NCAA Tournament in five years.

Working primarily with the setters, Bere helped coach standout Mary Ashley Tippins as she was named First-Team All-ACC and AVCA Honorable Mention All-American in 2009 and 2010. In addition to in-match duties, Bere assisted with scheduling, recruiting, academics and program special projects as well as other duties. He helped recruit the No. 25 signing class in the country according to PrepVolleyball.com in 2011 and challenged his student-athletes in the classroom as the program maintained a cumulative GPA that exceeded 3.0 each of his last four years.

Bere served two seasons on the Louisville (2007-08) staff before heading down to Atlanta. In his final season at Louisville, the Cardinals received an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament by capturing the 2008 BIG EAST tournament title a year after finishing as runner-up.

An assistant coach at LSU for three seasons (2004-06), Bere was responsible for game strategy, recruiting and practice planning. He helped guide the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament in 2005 following a 13-year hiatus as LSU captured a share of its first Southeastern Conference Western Division title in school history. The following year, LSU repeated as SEC Western Division champions and made a return trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Bere returned to Division I volleyball at LSU following a successful stint as the head coach at Southern Indiana, where he posted a 47-17 record in two seasons. He guided the Screaming Eagles to their first bid in the NCAA Division II Tournament after capturing the Great Lakes Valley Conference tournament crown in 2002, and came within three points of a repeat GLVC title and tournament berth the following season. His .734 winning percentage at Southern Indiana still ranks as one of the best winning percentages in school history.

During his two years, Southern Indiana setter Kim Boehmer became the first Screaming Eagle to receive All-America honors when she was named to the honorable mention squad in 2002. She also received first-team All-GLVC honors in 2002 and 2003, while Kristi Kavanaugh (Griffin) earned First-Team CoSIDA Academic All-American honors.

While earning a Bachelor of Arts in health education with a minor in coaching (1990-95) and a Master of Arts in physical education (1995-97) from Morehead State, Bere began his coaching career by serving as a student assistant in 1993 before being promoted to full-time assistant coach for the 1994 season. While on staff with the Eagles, Morehead State captured the 1993 Ohio Valley Conference Tournament title and finished as the regular season runner-up in 1994. The Eagles also returned to the title match of the 1995 OVC Tournament, taking runner-up honors.

Following graduation, Bere accepted his first job out of college as an assistant coach with Mississippi State (1997-2001). There he was responsible for coordinating the Bulldog defense and working closely with the outside hitters. Bere also headed up the team's recruiting efforts while performing additional administrative duties off the court.

A native of Louisville, Ky., Bere was a three-year letterwinner on the Morehead State football team and a six-year member of the men's volleyball club squad, serving as head coach while earning his Master's degree.

Bere is married to the former Shannon Krebs, and the couple has one son, Blake.

Former WKU volleyball standout Jessica Lucas, a four-year starter for the Hilltoppers from 2014-17, returned to The Hill as an assistant coach prior to the 2020-21 season. Lucas graduated from WKU in the spring of 2018 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science.

Despite an on-going global pandemic, WKU Volleyball achieved its best season yet in 2020-21. Going 23-1 overall, WKU's lone loss on the season came to the eventual national champions in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. Lauren Matthews (2nd Team) joined Alyssa Cavanaugh (3rd Team) as the only players in WKU Volleyball history to be recognized on one of the AVCA's three All-American lists. Nadia Dieudonne earned Senior CLASS Award All-American status as well.

Lucas returned to The Hill after two years on the Purdue staff under head coach Dave Shondell. She held a graduate manager position with the Boilermakers for the 2018 and 2019 seasons. Over those seasons, Purdue posted records 24-9 and 24-8, respectively while registering a 3-2 record in the NCAA Tournament.

A 2018 graduate of WKU, Lucas returns home to The Hill where her decorated playing career took place. The Seymour, Ind., native is one of three WKU Volleyball players to earn AVCA All-American status all four seasons of her career (2014-17). Lucas was the first three-time Setter of the Year in Conference USA (2015-17) while also earning First Team All-American status as a finalist for the Senior CLASS Award. Across her career, Lucas would earn eight collective All-Americans nods and was a four-time C-USA First Team All-Conference selection among numerous additional accolades.

Across her four years on The Hill, Lucas and the Hilltoppers posted an overall record of 123-17 which included a 57-3 record in the program's first four seasons as a Conference USA member. WKU claimed both the regular season and tournament titles all four years of Lucas' career as her class became the program's first to appear in the NCAA Tournament every year of their careers.

In her return to The Hill, Lucas will work primarily with the squad's setters while also assisting with all other aspects of the game in addition to recruiting as she fills the role previously held by Kristi Griffin.

13TH YEAR AT WKU | SOUTHERN INDIANA '04

Kristi Griffin returns for her 13th season on the WKU volleyball staff during the 2021 school year and second as the program's Director of Operations. Griffin has also coached at Jacksonville State and the University of Southern Indiana prior to her 11 seasons as an assistant at WKU. Since her arrival in 2009, the Hilltoppers own nine NCAA Tournament appearances and six regular season Conference USA championships, six C-USA Tournament Championships, three Sun Belt Conference Regular-Season Championships and two SBC Tournament titles.

Griffin has guided 49 total All-Conference selections, including four-time All-Americans Alyssa Cavanaugh and Jessica Lucas, three-time All-Americans Melanie Stutsman and Rachel Anderson and two-time All-Americans Jordyn Skinner and Lauren Matthews.

Despite an on-going global pandemic, WKU Volleyball achieved its best season yet in 2020-21. Going 23-1 overall, WKU's lone loss on the season came to the eventual national champions in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Red and White earned the No. 16 rank in the final AVCA poll, which tied the team's best-ever ranking. Lauren Matthews (2nd Team) joined Alyssa Cavanaugh (3rd Team) as the only players in WKU Volleyball history to be recognized on one of the AVCA's three All-American lists. Nadia Dieudonne earned Senior CLASS Award All-American status as well.

During the 2019 campaign - Griffin's final season as an assistant coach - the Hilltoppers earned the team's first-ever NCAA Tournament national seed at No. 15. The Tops became one of just five programs in the nation to produce 20 or more consecutive 20-win seasons.

After graduating five seniors - including two four-time All-Americans - the WKU staff was faced with a tall task during the 2018 campaign. Despite an uphill battle to conquer, the WKU staff led the squad to its 19th-straight 20-win season and secured the No. 2 seed in the C-USA Tournament.

The 2017 WKU Volleyball squad continued finding new records to break. On Oct. 6, 2017, Griffin helped lead the unit to its 30th-straight win over a C-USA opponent for the league record. That streak would stretch to 38 matches before a setback. After tying for the C-USA Regular Season Championship, WKU hit the ground running come postseason time, getting to play all five postseason matches in Kentucky. The Hilltoppers would head to Lexington, Ky., for the NCAA Tournament and advance to the second round for the third time in Griffin's nine seasons on staff.

The 2016 WKU squad proved to be one of the elite teams in the nation both on and off the court. After posting a cumulative team GPA of 3.61 for the 2016-17 school year to earn a spot on the AVCA Academic Honor Roll, WKU was the only DI program to earn top-25 academic honors and finish in the top-25 (or receive votes) in the final AVCA Coaches Poll of 2016. The Hilltoppers made the program's 10th NCAA Tournament appearance, traveling to Stanford.

In 2015, after securing its second C-USA Championship title, WKU made its ninth NCAA appearance in program history. A statement victory came in the first match of the year as the Hilltoppers defeated No. 5 Wisconsin.

Griffin and the 2014 squad took home a co-championship for its 15-1 league record while winning the C-USA Championship in its first year as a member and made its eighth NCAA appearance in program history. Highlighting the year was a win at home over No. 8 Purdue, recording a victory over the highest-ranked opponent in program history at the time.

In 2013, Griffin helped WKU to a regular-season title in its last year in the SBC. The Hilltoppers opened the season for the first-time ever ranked in the AVCA Top-25 poll at No. 21 before moving up to No. 16 after defeating No. 16 Purdue in West Lafayette. The ranking was the highest in school history. At season's end, the Hilltoppers were given the Team Academic Award after earning the highest GPA out of the league's 10 schools.

For the first time, WKU entered the AVCA Top 25 Poll, ranked No. 24 in the nation heading into the 2011 postseason. The Hilltoppers also reached a program high No. 21 in the NCAA RPI.

After a year's absence, WKU returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2010 with its second at-large bid in program history.

Griffin spent four seasons at Jacksonville State University before her stint on The Hill. At JSU, she helped guide the Gamecocks to OVC regular-season titles in 2006 and 2007, back-to-back OVC Tournament crowns in 2005 and 2006 and the school's first two trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to her coaching career at Jacksonville State, Griffin led the University of Southern Indiana, her alma mater, to a 21-9 record in her only season on the Screaming Eagles' coaching staff. She received a bachelor's degree in elementary education from USI in 2004.

The Montgomery, Ind. native and graduate of Barr-Reeve High School, Griffin was a four-year starter for USI from 1999-2002, compiling an 87-35 overall record. She helped USI win its first ever Great Lakes Valley Conference Regular-Season Championship in 2000 and led USI to its first GLVC Tournament title and the NCAA Tournament in 2002.

She ranked fifth in the school's record books in career digs with 1,153 and third in career service aces with 145. During her senior season at USI, she averaged a career-high 3.56 kills and 3.59 digs per set. A four-time Academic All-GLVC selection and three-time CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree, she was named to the Verizon Academic All-American First Team in her senior year.

HARLIE BRYANT

10TH SEASON
BEAVER DAM, KY.

After adopting then-six-year-old Harlie Bryant to the team in 2012, no one associated with WKU volleyball could have imagined the impact that she would have on the program. On that official adoption day, Harlie looked and acted like a normal child—running around, talking, eating cake and playing with balloons.

Harlie is much more than a normal child, though. Having to battle with a brain tumor and all that it entails, now at 14 years old, Harlie has been through more than what many adults have. However, Harlie has a positive spirit, which is kept up by “her girls” on the volleyball team.

“They call and check up on her often,” said Harlie’s mom, Lisa. “All the girls will text her too. They really take away her sickness. It is completely different when she is here. She can feel bad at home, and then she will come here where they all want to talk to her and she’s hanging out with them, and she will feel better. It has been great for her mentality.”

The support system for Harlie came about after WKU head coach Travis Hudson signed up with the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) after seeing a segment on HBO’s “Real Sports with Bryant Gumbel.” FOJ is a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors, connecting athletic teams to children and their families. Using geography to bring the pairs together, Harlie is from Beaver Dam, Ky., allowing the Bryants to come to matches when possible.

Harlie and the Hilltoppers don’t just see each other on gamedays where she is a staple in warmups, the lineup and on the sideline. They have dyed Easter eggs together, visited Harlie at home, video chatted while Harlie is away for medical treatments and the list continues.

The Bryants continue to be thankful for the support that has stemmed from volleyball, Hilltopper Nation and even the University. One person who they can’t thank enough is Hudson.

“He has been like family,” said Harlie’s dad, Jamie. “That’s the bottom line right there. He would stop and do anything for us instantly. It’s just like if she was one of his kids.”

“Every night that Harlie is in our building is a special night to me,” said Hudson. “We get so wrapped up in what we are trying to do and our season seems so important, but there is nothing that any of us will do that will compare to the fight that girl is in on a daily basis. I have yet to see her walk in and not have a smile on her face and wrap her arms around everybody here. There is no big winner than that kid every time she is in Diddle Arena.”

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) story is a magical one about a nine-year-old girl, a start-up Division I women’s lacrosse team and a big dream.

In 2004, nine-year-old Jaclyn Murphy was diagnosed with a medullo-blastoma, a malignant brain tumor. While undergoing treatment, she was inspired by a large framed photo on the hospital wall of a joyful, young woman lacrosse player celebrating her team’s NCAA championship. Jaclyn would see it and say, “I am going to play lacrosse again when I get well.”

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University’s Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn’s story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn’s strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical “perfect season,” winning Northwestern’s first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final. When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team’s celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn’s relationship with the players – her adopted sisters – had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country. The magical FOJ is only just beginning!

Visit FriendsofJaclyn.org for more information on FOJ.

26 SEASONS UNDER TRAVIS HUDSON

The mastermind behind the 2020-21 Hilltopper squad, Hudson collected the AVCA South Region Coach of the Year for the seventh time of his career. Hudson and the Tops are one of just five programs in the nation to produce 20 or more consecutive 20-win seasons.

Through more than a quarter century at the helm of WKU Volleyball, Hudson owns a remarkable 665-216 (.775) record. Hudson's squads have posted a winning record in 24 of his 26 seasons as head coach. He's led the program to all 13 of its NCAA Tournament appearances including five First Round victories.

On Selection Show Sunday in Spring 2021, Hudson and his squad already knew where they were heading - the NCAA Tournament Bubble in Omaha, Nebraska - but they'd soon find out they'd face Jackson State would be their opening match. Two wins later, the Tops were in the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history. The season would close with WKU registering a 23-1 overall record while rewriting the record books once again.

RECEIVING VOTES

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 11-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2010 campaign. The 2010 and 2018 campaigns marked the only seasons in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

TOP-25 MAINSTAY

WKU Volleyball came in at No. 25 in the 2020-21 AVCA Preseason Spring Coaches Poll. After concluding the 2019 Poll at No. 22, the Tops returned to the poll after not playing enough in fall 2020 to qualify for the rankings. WKU has now appeared in the top 25 nine of the last 10 seasons. WKU Volleyball jumped two spots to the No. 18 ranking before earning the No. 16 spot in the AVCA's Final Poll.

SINCE JOINING CONFERENCE USA

Across the last seven seasons on The Hill, WKU Volleyball sported a 198-30 record that included 12 collective Conference USA Championships. The Hilltoppers went 94-6 in C-USA regular season play during that span. In six NCAA Tournament appearances the squad posted a 5-6 record.

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Following the 2020-21 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 15th consecutive season as the Hilltoppers finished the campaign with a 3.619 team GPA. The honor marks the 19th time the Hilltopper team has earned the recognition since 1999. WKU's 15-year streak of the award is tied for the sixth longest among all Division I programs.

In total, an all-time record of 243 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of nine Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, FIU, Louisiana Tech, Marshall, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion, Rice, Southern Miss, UAB and UTSA in addition to the Red and White.

AVCA SOUTH REGION SUPERLATIVES

WKU Volleyball hauled in six total AVCA South All-Region accolades the organization announced Tuesday. Paige Briggs earned Region Player of the Year honors while Travis Hudson earned the seventh Region Coach of the Year award of his career. Briggs, Nadia Dieudonne, Lauren Matthews and Katie Isenbarger were tabbed First Team All-Region while Kayland Jackson earned Honorable Mention status.

BRIGGS NAMED COSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT

Following another stellar season on the court, WKU Volleyball's Paige Briggs earned additional recognition for her work in the classroom as the sophomore was named to the 2021 Academic All-District II Team, the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) announced Thursday. Briggs was joined by Rice's Nicole Lennon as the lone Conference USA volleyball student-athletes to be honored.

Briggs is the first Hilltopper to earn CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition since Heather Boyan and Rachel Engle were both honored during the 2014 campaign. The Ortonville, Michigan native marks the 13th selection to the list in WKU Volleyball history.

In the classroom, Briggs has posted a 3.89 GPA while pursuing a degree in visual studies with a minor in graphic design on The Hill. She was named to the C-USA Volleyball All-Academic Team in addition to earning a spot on WKU's President's List for all four semesters she has been on campus, and was a part of Conference USA Commissioner's Academic Medal and Honor Roll both years as well.

A SEASON FOR THE RECORD BOOKS

Last season, WKU owned a 23-1 overall record after earning the Conference USA East Division title and C-USA Tournament Championship before suffering its only loss to eventual national champions, Kentucky. The Hilltoppers opened play in the NCAA Bubble with a 3-0 sweep of Jackson State before upsetting No. 15 seed Washington State the next evening to earn the program's first-ever Sweet 16 appearance.

ALL-AMERICANS

Fresh off the first NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearance in program history, WKU Volleyball saw another first achieved by a Hilltopper a few days later as Lauren Matthews earned the first AVCA Second Team All-American distinction. Paige Briggs and Nadia Dieudonne were both tabbed AVCA (American Volleyball Coaches Association) Honorable Mention All-Americans.

Matthews joins the late Alyssa Cavanaugh as the only players in WKU Volleyball history to be recognized on one of the AVCA's three All-American lists. Cavanaugh was a third team selection following her senior campaign in 2017.

Together, Briggs, Dieudonne and Matthews helped the Red and White continue to rewrite the record book. The squad's 2020-21 record of 23-1 will go down as the best season win percentage (.958), the fewest losses, and the best undefeated start to a season (23-0) – just to name a few. The Hilltoppers also swept 18 matches across the season.

FIRST TEAM SENIOR CLASS AWARD ALL-AMERICAN

WKU Volleyball setter Nadia Dieudonne was named a Senior CLASS Award First Team All-American in April 2021. The Louisville, Ky., native marks the second Hilltopper to earn First Team recognition for the award, joining her coach, Jessica Lucas.

Dieudonne joins Rachel Anderson (2018), Lucas (2017), Alyssa Cavanaugh (2017) and Ashley Potts (2013) as Hilltopper Senior CLASS Award candidates. And most recently joined Lucas and Potts to make the cut down to 10 finalists to earn All-American status.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SELECTION SHOW

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, NCAA Volleyball was forced to alter its postseason tournament, which would ultimately become one of many "Bubble" events. Before the Selection Show ever aired, the Hilltoppers already knew they'd be heading to Omaha, Nebraska for the postseason event thanks to their automatic bid.

Instead of gathering at a local restaurant, the team, along with family and friends, gathered inside E.A.

Diddle Arena for the Show.

On Selection Sunday, WKU Volleyball learned its fate was to match up against Jackson State in the opening round of the 2020-21 NCAA Tournament on Wednesday, April 14. The Hilltoppers headed to the Bubble with a perfect 21-0 record after locking up the program's 11th automatic – and 13th overall – bid to the NCAA Tournament.

WKU and Jackson State learned they'd face off for the first time in program history scheduled for April 14 in a match that will stream on ESPN3 from the CHI Health Center Omaha. The pair of First Round foes make up two of the six unbeaten teams appearing in the NCAA Tournament this year.

NCAA TOURNAMENT FIRST ROUND MATCH

No. 18 WKU Volleyball earned its second-straight trip to the NCAA Tournament Second Round for the first time in program history with Wednesday's 3-0 victory over Jackson State. The Hilltoppers operated at a collective .393 clip while holding Jackson State to an even .000 mark. Every eligible WKU player was able to see the court in the win as the Tops claimed the sets by scores of 25-11, 25-16 and 25-12.

The Hilltoppers improved to 22-0 on the 2020-21 season with the victory while Jackson State closed its season with a 11-1 record. Three of the five unbeaten teams in the Tournament earned victories on Wednesday, which means four squads that have yet to lose will play Thursday in the Second Round. Additionally, WKU and Morehead State both earned wins on Wednesday to join Louisville and Kentucky as squads from the Commonwealth to earn spots in the Round of 32.

Lauren Matthews struck for the match's first kill and would add on 13 more throughout the Tops' quickest outing of the season. The junior operated at a .478 hitting clip while adding two digs and a block.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SECOND ROUND MATCH

No. 18 WKU Volleyball secured the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 with a five-set win over 15th seeded No. 17 Washington State. In their first five-set match of the season, the Hilltoppers hit .300 while holding the Cougars to a .245 clip.

WKU took a 2-0 lead in the match before Washington State responded with two sets of its own to force a decisive fifth set. The Hilltoppers claimed the first two frames 25-22 and 25-20 before dropping the next two 21-25 and 17-25.

The decisive final set was all that stood in the way of the Tops' first-ever trip to the Sweet 16. Back in both 2017 and 2019, the Hilltoppers also went five sets for a shot at setting program history but came up short in both. However, the third time was the charm as WKU outlasted the Cougars. The record-setting win didn't come easy though as the Red and White had to withstand two lead changes and seven times in the final frame along.

SUNDAY, APRIL 19, 2021

After achieving numerous program firsts in what was a "free season" of volleyball, the Hilltoppers concludeD the 2020-21 campaign with a NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearance – the first in program history. WKU Volleyball closes the season with a 23-1 record, setting a new record for season winning percentage at .958.

WKU suffered its lone loss of the season to the eventual national champions, Kentucky, on April 19 in a 3-0 sweep after having swept 18 matches throughout the season. Kentucky claimed the win with set scores of 25-20, 25-16 and 25-10.

"It's been a super-cool experience," added Isenbarger. "There's going to be nothing like this ever again. We didn't know what to expect. It's been difficult, I think harder than we realized until after the fact because we are so exhausted and things like that after being in a hotel for a week. It's just nothing that we're used to, nothing that anyone's used to. My biggest takeaway is that everyone has to go through it and it's a unique experience. I'm just going to be grateful that we got here and got to the Sweet 16 and it's nothing anyone else expected. WKU getting to the Sweet 16 has never been done before, so my biggest takeaway is trying to be proud of everything we've accomplished."

UNIVERSITY

WKU is engaged in internationally acclaimed, student-centered applied research academic programs. The WKU experience occurs on several unique campus environments and through an overarching spirit which attracts an intellectually exciting and diverse family of the nation's best students.

WKU provides students of all backgrounds with rigorous academic programs in education, the liberal arts and sciences, the health sciences and business, with emphasis at the baccalaureate and masters levels, complemented by relevant associate and doctoral level programs. The University places a premium on student learning; it is committed to ensuring value in a holistic learning experience through high standards for student achievement and conduct, a strong faculty, technological innovation, personalized attention, broad access and public accountability for actions and outcomes. Each year, WKU students earn prestigious academic scholarships and national recognitions. Some of these recognitions include the Harry S. Truman Scholar, Thomas R. Pickering Foreign Affairs Fellowship, Charles B. Rangel Scholars, Fulbright U.S. Student Program, Critical Language Scholarship, David M. Boren Scholarship and National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship.

Out-of-the-classroom and study abroad experiences enhance learning, promote diversity and contribute to the success of students.

A place where all students can succeed, WKU is the home of the Gatton Academy for Mathematics and Science for exceptional Kentucky high school juniors and seniors. The Academy was named the number one high school in the U.S. in 2012, 2013 and 2014 by Newsweek and The Daily Beast. WKU is proud to have Kentucky's first independent Honors College. WKU honors students enjoy an intimate scholarly environment on a vibrant campus and are encouraged to become involved in community service, applied research and study abroad.

WKU MISSION STATEMENT

Western Kentucky University (WKU) prepares students of all backgrounds to be productive, engaged and socially responsible citizen-leaders of a global society. The University provides research, service and lifelong learning opportunities for its students, faculty and other constituents. WKU enriches the quality of life for those within its reach.

HERE'S THE GIST

Located 60 miles north of Nashville and 110 miles south of Louisville off Interstate 65, Bowling Green is the third-most populous city in the state of Kentucky after Louisville and Lexington. As of 2013, the population for Bowling Green sits at 61,488 with 118,370 in the surrounding Warren County area.

Significant companies in Bowling Green include the GM Corvette Assembly Plant, Fruit of the Loom/Russell Athletics, Houchens Industries, Holley Performance Products and Camping World.

BRIEF HISTORY

Warren County consists of 546 square miles and was named for General Joseph Warren, a hero of the famous American Revolution Battle of Bunker Hill. The area was first settled in 1785 when Andrew McFadin built McFadin's Station on Barren River. Shortly afterward, another explorer, Robert Moore, paused for a few days at the station before deciding to build in the area. Brothers George and Robert Moore may not have realized how forward looking they were when they selected a site on the Barren River in south central Kentucky for a new settlement in 1796.

At the first county commissioners meeting in early 1798, the pioneers decided that the new town would be "called and known by the name of Bolin Green." This name was after the Bowling Green Square in New York City, where patriots had pulled down a statue of King George III and used the lead to make bullets during the American Revolution.

In laying out the town, the Moore's designed two acres for the construction of public buildings. Those same two acres today make up Fountain Square Park in the heart of downtown. This is symbolic of the city of Bowling Green whose central location allowed it quickly to become a major agricultural community and river port, and later, an important commercial and educational center. Today, Bowling Green is a regional entertainment hub for more than 250,000 people in 11 surrounding counties.

DR. TIMOTHY C. CABONI

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

5TH YEAR AT WKU | LSU '92 | @CABONI

Timothy C. Caboni, a 1994 Western Kentucky University graduate, returned to the Hill on July 1, 2017, as WKU's 10th president. Shortly after assuming the president role, Caboni launched a comprehensive strategic planning process aimed at developing a roadmap for the University's next decade of growth. Thus, WKU's 2018-2028 strategic plan, Climbing to Greater Heights, was finalized in summer 2018, and its implementation is well underway.

President Caboni quickly generated a renewed institutional focus on student-centeredness, applied research, recruitment, retention and growing partnerships within WKU's 27-county service region and beyond. Of particular importance to Caboni is WKU's responsibility to advance the City of Bowling Green, the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the world by inspiring innovation, elevating communities and transforming lives.

Several key initiatives were launched during President Caboni's first four years at WKU, including the Summer Scholars program, the Intercultural Student Engagement Center Academy, the Burch Institute, the First Year Village, the WKU Commons at Helm Library, the Opportunity Fund, The Innovation Campus, centralized advising and CAPE (Comprehensive Academic Program Evaluation). The intentional groundwork laid through the strategic plan and these initiatives, supported by the collective work done across the University under President Caboni's leadership, has led WKU to significant positive momentum and record-breaking successes.

In June 2019, Caboni was elected to the Conference USA Board of Director's Executive Committee at the league's summer meetings. The presidents of each of the league's member schools serve on the league's Board of Directors, and members of the Executive Committee help set league policy for C-USA. In June 2021, Caboni was named Vice Chair of the Executive Committee.

In the area of recruitment, in fall 2020 the University celebrated its largest one-year increase in the size of its incoming class compared to any class during the past three decades. This group also brought with it the highest high school GPA in WKU's history. At the start of his third year on the Hill, Caboni announced bold changes to the University's scholarship program, increasing institutional aid by $5.2 million. The newly revamped freshman scholarship model, coupled with aggressive affordability marketing and outreach, created fall 2020's historic growth by more than doubling the number of freshmen receiving scholarships compared to fall 2019, with nearly 84% receiving merit awards to help fund their education (rising from 39% in 2019).

WKU's one-year retention rates for academic year (AY) 2019-20 came in at an all-time high (76.8% for first-time, full-time baccalaureate students; 69.9% for low income students; and 73% for underrepresented minority students). In just three years (AY 2016-17 to AY 2019-20), WKU's first-to-second-year student retention increased 6.9 percentage points, and underrepresented minority (URM) retention jumped 15.2 percentage points - both representing the largest three-year increases in WKU's history.

Additionally, in fall 2019, Caboni restructured the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) team, seeing also immediate results with WKU achieving the second highest score among Kentucky's public universities in the Council on Postsecondary Education's latest DEI evaluation (2018-19). In 2019, WKU was awarded the Educational Fundraising Award by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) for persistent fundraising success after celebrating its record year of gifts in fiscal year 2018, reaching $45 million. And since its inception in 2017, the WKU Opportunity Fund, a fundraising effort to support WKU students, has already grown to $48 million of its $50 million target with 136 new endowed scholarship funds.

2021 is set to be another year of success and celebration on the Hill as four new scholarships, announced in fall 2020, open even more doors to prospective students and the University marks the opening of the WKU Commons at Helm Library, The Innovation Campus and The First Year Village, complete with Living Learning Communities. Additionally, as President Caboni remains committed to ensuring the University's physical spaces align with its student-centered initiatives, work to support the 2021-31 Campus Master Plan launches this year.

TODD STEWART

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS | @TODDSTEWARTWKU

14TH YEAR AT WKU – 10TH YEAR AS AD | MIAMI (OHIO) '88

Todd Stewart's Tenure as WKU Director of Athletics

- Ranked as the 15th best Athletic Director in the country including the second-best non-Power Five AD by the national media outlet Stadium in June of 2020.
- Since 2014, WKU is the only Football Bowl Subdivision school in the nation that leads its conference in championships while ranking in the bottom 25 percent of its league in budget.
- The current 3.19 average cumulative GPA for all student-athletes is the highest in WKU athletics history. 13 of WKU's 14 sport programs now have a team cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Notable WKU highlights since being named Director of Athletics in 2012

- 44 total conference championships captured by 12 different sport programs
 - 15 NCAA Tournament appearances by Volleyball, Men's and Women's Basketball, Softball
 - Seven FBS bowl appearances with four wins
 - 2020 Volleyball NCAA Sweet 16
 - 2018 Men's basketball NIT Final Four, 2021 NIT Elite Eight
 - National top 25 final rankings in volleyball (2012, 2015, 2019, 2020), football (2015), men's track (2014)
 - 855 student-athletes have obtained their degrees
 - Over $8 million committed to capital projects

Operating with a fast break mentality from the day he was hired, Todd Stewart's tenure as WKU's Director of Athletics has been marked by consistent success for the Hilltoppers on the field of play, in the classroom, and in the community. Stewart, who has made 13 head coaching hires during his tenure, also played an instrumental role in elevating WKU's athletic programs to Conference USA on July 1, 2014 and transitioning all WKU athletic teams to Nike for all apparel on July 1, 2017.

Despite unprecedented obstacles in 2020-21, WKU Athletics continued to excel. Volleyball, Men's Basketball, Soccer, and Softball captured conference championships. Volleyball finished with the highest national ranking in program history (16th) and reached the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 for the first time after defeating No. 15 national seed Washington

State in the second round. Men's Basketball's 73-71 victory at nationally ranked Alabama marked the program's 9th win over a Power 5 conference team since the beginning of the 2017-18 season.

In 2019-20, Football finished 9-4 including a 45-19 win at Arkansas and culminated the season with a win over Western Michigan in the Servpro First Responder Bowl, marking the program's fourth bowl win in six seasons. Volleyball finished with a No. 22 national ranking in the AVCA poll with a 32-2 overall record. Women's basketball set a program record by posting 20+ wins for the eighth consecutive season.

The 2017-18 men's basketball team reached the NIT Final Four for the first time since 1952 and posted a 27-11 record, the 9th highest win total in the program's 100 years. WKU also posted wins over members of the ACC (Boston College), Big 10 (Purdue), Big 12 (Oklahoma State) and Pac 12 (Southern Cal) in the same season for the first time in program history. Women's basketball advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in the previous five seasons.

Football posted back-to-back seasons of more than 10 wins for the only time in the program's history in 2015 and 2016. In 2016, WKU football led the nation in scoring (45.5 ppg.) and posted an 11-3 record including the school's third consecutive bowl win, a 51-31 victory over Memphis in the Boca Raton Bowl. WKU was one of only nine programs in the nation with a bowl win during the three-year period of 2014-16 and had 20 former players in NFL camps in the spring of 2017.

The 2015 football program had perhaps the best season in school history. WKU tied the school record for single-season wins (12), defeated South Florida in the Miami Beach Bowl for the program's second consecutive bowl victory, and finished the season ranked No. 24 nationally by the Associated Press. In the Hilltoppers inaugural season in Conference USA in 2014-15, WKU became the first school in the league's 20-year history to win eight conference championships and a bowl game in the same season. Women's basketball (30-5) became only the third men's or women's basketball team in school history with a 30-win season (men, 1938; women, 1986). Softball followed up Conference USA regular season and tournament titles with NCAA Tournament wins over North Carolina and Georgia.

In its final year in the Sun Belt Conference in 2013-14, WKU won the league's all-sports championship for the sixth overall time but first since 2008.

Stewart was named WKU's Director of Athletics on May 9, 2012, after serving in the role on an interim basis since March 22. Stewart joined WKU in June of 2008 after a 40-month stint as Associate Commissioner for Communications for the Sun Belt Conference.

Prior to joining the SBC, Stewart worked in the National Football League for 15 years. He was hired by the Cleveland Browns as Executive Director of Communications and Media Relations in 1999, helping to create the franchise's communications/media relations department as it reentered the league as an expansion team. Stewart assisted the NFL's public relations staff at Super Bowl XXXVI in New Orleans and was the AFC public relations representative at the 2000 Pro Bowl in Hawaii while with the Browns. He also served on the NFL's Media Policies Committee.

Prior to joining the Browns, Stewart was the Assistant Director of Public Relations for the Indianapolis Colts from 1991-99, where he also worked on the NFL's public relations staff at Super Bowl XXVII in Los Angeles and at three consecutive AFC Championship Games (1997-99). The Colts' public relations staff was presented the 1996 Pete Rozelle Award, an annual honor bestowed to the NFL's top PR staff as voted by the Pro Football Writers of America.

Stewart, 55, received his bachelor's degree in communications from Miami (Ohio) in 1988, where he twice received the Miami University Parents' Council Student Achievement Award for outstanding service to the university. He worked as a graduate assistant in the sports information department at the University of Tennessee from 1988-90 while also pursuing a master's degree in communications. Stewart currently serves on the Board of Directors for the United Way of Southern Kentucky and is also a member of the Bowling Green Rotary.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Stewart and his wife, Rebecca, have one son, Blake (21).

CAROL AND DENNY WEDGE STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS CENTER

The Carol and Denny Wedge Student Athlete Success Center opened in January of 2009. SASC is a 10,000 square foot academic complex located in Houchens Smith Stadium and houses the academic advising staff, a computer laboratory and a large study area designated solely for use by student-athletes. The Student Athlete Success Center is also equipped with conference rooms and several private study rooms for WKU student-athletes to meet with athletic tutors on a one-to-one basis or work on class projects.

The mission of the Student Athlete Success Center is to help student-athletes have the most positive educational and personal experience possible at WKU. The SASC advisement staff has over 50 years of combined experience and strives to be the resource hub for WKU student-athletes to obtain success academically and in life after sports.

GOALS OF THE ACADEMIC PROGRAM

- To ensure compliance with WKU and NCAA academic requirements
- To provide academic support services, which will assist student-athletes in achieving academic success with tutorial assistance and proper course selection
- To offer educational workshops focusing on career and personal development
- To assist student-athletes in determining career goals and interests
- To exceed general student population semester and cumulative grade point average
- To exceed general student population graduation rate
- To achieve a minimum Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 930 for all sports

CONFERENCE LEADERS IN ACADEMICS

Academic achievement is a high priority on The Hill, and in WKU's seven seasons as members of C-USA, a total of 353 WKU student-athletes have earned the Conference USA Commissioner's Academic Medal, including 66 from C-USA-sponsored sports in 2020-21, for having a cumulative grade point average of 3.75 or better.

A total of 1,169 WKU student-athletes over that span, over half of its total number, earned Commissioner's Honor Roll recognition from Conference USA for maintaining a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better.

WKU has also seen 3,175 student-athletes honored by the conference office since 2004-05.

Despite transitioning to an altered learning format because of the COVID-19 pandemic, WKU's student-athletes finished spring 2021 with a cumulative career GPA of 3.19 – a program record. A total of 90 student-athletes graduated in 2020-21 with a cumulative GPA of 3.27.

A total of 144 student-athletes were also named to either the university's Dean's List (semester GPA of 3.4 to 3.79) or the President's List (3.8 or above) this spring.

HILLTOPPERS WITH HEART

Hilltoppers with Heart is WKU's community service initiative, designed to give WKU student-athletes, coaches and staff the unique opportunity to make an impact in the community by volunteering their time and talent with numerous organizations.

WKU Athletics has a commitment to growing sports in the Bowling Green community and the ability to demonstrate leadership in social responsibility. In 2019-20, the Hilltoppers combined to contribute over 2,000 hours of community service to Bowling Green and its surrounding areas before the start of the COVID-19 pandemic.

BIG RED

THE SPIRIT OF WESTERN

Big Red, Western Kentucky University's athletic mascot, was born in the fall of 1979 and celebrates its birthday on Dec. 1. Big Red can be best described as the Spirit of Western!

The huge, furry, lovable creature was originally designed and built by WKU student Ralph Carey, ('80 WKU graduate), of Cincinnati, and made its debut during the Hilltoppers' 1979-80 basketball season. Big Red has become a big hit with fans of all ages throughout the state and the nation. Big Red's signature moves are the belly slide and belly shake.

Big Red is an eight-time participant in the Capital One Mascot Challenge and, in 2012, Big Red was named the first member of the Capital One Mascot Hall of Fame.

In 2020, Big Red was the national runner-up in the SiriusXM College Mascot Bracket.

Prior to the 2013 season, Sports Illustrated rated Big Red as the number nine mascot in college football. Of course, on The Hill, we all think Big Red is No. 1.

The ultimate fan and supporter of all WKU's intercollegiate sports, Big Red won the "Key to Spirit" award, the highest honor presented to team mascots at the time, at the Universal Cheerleading Association competition in 1980, 1981 and again in 1983.

In the spring of 1990, Big Red reached the "Final Four" of the UCA's second annual national championship event in San Antonio, Texas, taking third-place honors. Then, in the spring of 1996, Big Red reached the "Final Four" of ESPN SportZone's "Battle of the Mascots" in public balloting on the Internet.

Big Red was the centerpiece of ESPN's promotion of the 25,000th Sports Center, airing in August 2002.

In 2005, Big Red placed second at the Universal Cheerleader Association's Summer Camp in Knoxville, Tenn. Also in 2005, Big Red was voted the favorite mascot (of participating schools) at the NCAA Mascot Mania celebration in Indianapolis, Ind.

CONFERENCE USA

2021 C-USA VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

Conference USA will host its 25th volleyball tournament Nov. 19-21 on the campus of Old Dominion for the first time ever.

The event features the top eight teams with the best league finishes during the regular season. The tournament is single elimination with no byes.

The championship match will take place on Saturday, Nov. 21 with the winner earning the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

C-USA VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT SCHEDULE

Nov. 19 - Quarterfinals
Nov. 20 - Semifinals
Nov. 21 - Championship

TOURNAMENT HISTORY

In 2019 and again in spring 2021, the league's two nationally-ranked programs met in the Conference USA Volleyball Championship on Saturday afternoon from Hattiesburg, Miss., and the match lived up to its hype. No. 19 WKU edged No. 24 Rice in four sets to claim its sixth C-USA crown in seven years and an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

These two programs had it out in the C-USA Championship title match for the fourth time since 2014, each of the meetings coming down to five sets until the most recent tilt.

2020-21 C-USA ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Emani' Foster, Charlotte
Nicole Lennon, Rice
Anota Adekunle, Rice
Sahara Maruska, Rice
Lauren Matthews, WKU (MVP)
Nadia Dieudonne, WKU
Paige Briggs, WKU
